ADVISORY TO ALL TEACHERS

Dear Teachers,

This advisory is being issued in light of recent tragic incident reported from Andhra Pradesh, involving the death of a young child following an alleged physical altercation with a teacher, is a grave reminder of the responsibility entrusted to us.

There must be ZERO TOLERANCE for any form of physical punishment, physical handling, intimidation, humiliation, threatening behaviour, or inappropriate language towards students.

All teachers are strictly advised to exercise complete restraint, patience and professional conduct while dealing with students.

Please understand that any act of physical or inappropriate conduct towards a student will be viewed seriously and may invite disciplinary action as per school policy.

Every child in our care has the right to feel safe, respected and protected. As educators, safeguarding the physical and emotional well-being of our students is not optional—it is our fundamental responsibility.

All concerned are advised to take this communication in the strictest seriousness and ensure that such incidents do not occur under any circumstances.

Please exercise utmost caution and restraint at all times.

With regards

Ms. Richa Sharma
